SUBJECT: Lincoln County High School in Panaca

SUMMARY

Lincoln County High School in Panaca serves students from Panaca, Caliente, Pioche, and outlying areas. It is designated a "high-achieving school" with a current enrollment of 170 students. If new students were to enter the school system, structural capacity exists for up to 240 total students (this many students have been enrolled at one time in the past). Additional supplies and teachers might be needed if enough new students were to enroll, but the school building itself has extra capacity.
